CONSTANTINE

Constantine, inspired with a New England theme, aims to create a light, breezy aura reminiscent of the sandy shores of the Hampton's. This sofa is manufactured using a combination of hand woven natural silk, elegant stripes and textured linens creating a very pure appearance. The Constantine is manufactured in the U.K using hard wood frames with our traditional screwed, glued and dowelled method of construction. The seat cushions are filled with foam and topped with a feather pad. The loose scatter cushions have feather interiors. All models are available in a selection of fabrics and high quality full aniline leathers.
