ROOSEVELT

Roosevelt is a traditionally shaped sofa collection which is also available as a corner group. Made in the UK using hardwood frames and traditional screwed, glued and dowelled joints, the product is made to a very high specification. The seat cushions are filled with foam and topped with a feather pad for added luxury. The loose scatter cushions have feather interiors. All models are available in a selection of fabrics and high quality full aniline leathers.
